START YOUR NEXT COLLECTION WITH RUNWAY KIT

READY STYLES

The Runway Kit Ready Styles Package is the result of extensive trend research by our design and technical teams.

Now you can follow a highly intuitive process to design your garments based on our ready designs and launch a new label or add to your existing collection.

Select styles from our men's and women's catalogs, pick the color palettes and fabrics and start customizing the designs. Want to make the neckline deeper? Perhaps a higher leg cut? Or how about thicker straps? No problem. You are also given the opportunity to have your own logo or print on the garments.

After completing your style, we will deliver you the customized physical sample along with the technical specs of your design. You will also be given an average per piece manufacturing price for bulk production. We offer low minimum order quantities for bulk production to help startups and growing independent brands. Talk to us for more details.

What you get

- Customized physical sample
- Standard design tech sheet
- Detailed technical sketch
- Style base size measurement sheet
- Manufacturing color card (for swimwear)
- Freedom to go bulk with any manufacturer
